Management's Responsibility for the Schedule

Management is responsible for the preparation of this Schedule in accordance with Indigenous Services Canada's Financial Reporting Requirements, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of a Schedule that is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Practitioner's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express a conclusion on the accompanying Schedule based on our review. We conducted our review in accordance with Canadian generally accepted standards for review engagements, which require us to comply with relevant ethical requirements.

A review performed in accordance with Canadian generally accepted standards for review engagements is a limited assurance engagement. The practitioner performs procedures, primarily consisting of making inquiries of management and others within the entity, as appropriate, and applying analytical procedures, and evaluates the evidence obtained.

The procedures performed in a review are substantially less in extent than, and vary in nature from, those performed in an audit conducted in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Accordingly, we do not express an audit opinion on this Schedule.

Conclusion

Based on our review, nothing has come to our attention that causes us to believe that this Schedule is not, in all material respects, in accordance with Indigenous Services Canada's Financial Reporting Requirements.

Basis of Accounting

Without modifying our conclusion, we draw attention that the basis of accounting used is as per Indigenous Services Canada's Financial Reporting Requirements. The Schedule is prepared to assist Day Star First Nation to comply with Indigenous Services Canada's Financial Reporting Requirements referred to above. As a result, this Schedule may not be suitable for another purpose.
