

Cote First Nation
Schedule of Remuneration and Expenses – Elected Officials
March 31, 2018

Management's Responsibility

To the Members of Cote First Nation:

Management is responsible for the preparation and presentation of the accompanying Schedule Remuneration and Expenses – Elected Officials, including responsibility for significant accounting judgements and estimates in accordance with the First Nations Financial Transparency Act. This responsibility includes selecting appropriate accounting principles and methods, and making decisions affecting the measurement of transactions in which objective judgement is required.

In discharging its responsibilities for the integrity and fairness of the schedule of remuneration and expenses, management designs and maintains the necessary accounting systems and related internal controls to provide reasonable assurance that transactions are authorized, assets are safeguarded and financial records are properly maintained to provide reliable information for the preparation of financial information.

Chief and Council are responsible for overseeing management in the performance of its financial reporting responsibilities. Chief and Council fulfils these responsibilities by reviewing the financial information prepared by management and discussing relevant matters with management and external accountants. Chief and Council is also responsible for recommending the appointment of the First Nation's external accountants.

MNP LLP, an independent firm of Chartered Professional Accountants, is appointed by Chief and Council to review the Schedule of Remuneration and Expenses – Elected Officials and report directly to the Members; their report follows. The external accountants have full and free access to, and may meet periodically and separately with, both Chief and Council and management to discuss their review engagement results.

Review Engagement Report

To the Members of Cote First Nation:

We have reviewed the Schedule of Remuneration and Expenses – Elected Officials of Cote First Nation for the year ended March 31, 2018. The Schedule has been prepared by management of the First Nation based on the First Nations Financial Transparency Act.

Management's Responsibility for the Schedule

Management is responsible for the preparation of this Schedule in accordance the First Nations Financial Transparency Act, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of a Schedule that is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Practitioner's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express a conclusion on the accompanying Schedule based on our review. We conducted our review in accordance with Canadian generally accepted standards for review engagements, which require us to comply with relevant ethical requirements.

A review performed in accordance with Canadian generally accepted standards for review engagements is a limited assurance engagement. The practitioner performs procedures, primarily consisting of making inquiries of management and others within the entity, as appropriate, and applying analytical procedures, and evaluates the evidence obtained.

The procedures performed in a review are substantially less in extent than, and vary in nature from, those performed in an audit conducted in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Accordingly, we do not express an audit opinion on this Schedule.

Conclusion

Based on our review, nothing has come to our attention that causes us to believe that this Schedule is not, in all material respects, in accordance with the First Nations Financial Transparency Act.

Basis of Accounting and Restriction on Use

The Schedule is prepared to assist Cote First Nation to comply with the First Nations Financial Transparency Act. As a result, this Schedule may not be suitable for another purpose.
