

Day Star First Nation
Schedule of Remuneration and Expenses – Elected Officials
March 31, 2016

Management's Responsibility

To Members of Day Star First Nation:

Management is responsible for the preparation and presentation of the accompanying Schedule of Remuneration and Expenses – Elected Officials, including responsibility for significant accounting judgements and estimates in accordance with the First Nations Financial Transparency Act. This responsibility includes selecting appropriate accounting principles and methods, and making decisions affecting the measurement of transactions in which objective judgement is required.

In discharging its responsibilities for the integrity and fairness of the schedule of remuneration and expenses – elected officials, management designs and maintains the necessary accounting systems and related internal controls to provide reasonable assurance that transactions are authorized, assets are safeguarded and financial records are properly maintained to provide reliable information for the preparation of financial information.

Chief and Council are responsible for overseeing management in the performance of its financial reporting responsibilities. Chief and Council fulfils these responsibilities by reviewing the financial information prepared by management and discussing relevant matters with management and external accountants. Chief and Council is also responsible for recommending the appointment of the First Nation's external accountants.

MNP LLP, an independent firm of Chartered Professional Accountants, is appointed by Chief and Council to review the Schedule of Remuneration and Expenses – Elected Officials and report directly to the Members; their report follows. The external accountants have full and free access to, and may meet periodically and separately with, both Chief and Council and management to discuss their review engagement results.

Review Engagement Report

To Members of Day Star First Nation:

We have been engaged to review the Schedule of Remuneration and Expenses – Elected Officials of Day Star First Nation for the year ending March 31, 2016. Our review was made in accordance with Canadian generally accepted standards for review engagements and, accordingly, consisted primarily of enquiry, analytical procedures and discussion related to information supplied to us by Day Star First Nation.

A review does not constitute an audit and, consequently, we do not express an audit opinion on this financial information.

Based on our review, nothing has come to our attention that causes us to believe that this Schedule is not, in all material respects, in accordance with the First Nations Financial Transparency Act.
